Eight-Week Grief Support Group Registration Agreement

The Grief Recovery Method Grief Support Group® is conducted in association with the Grief Recovery Institute®. We will be using “The Grief Recovery Handbook – 20th Anniversary Expanded Edition” as the text to guide us to recovery. It is an eight-week program that meets once per week. Successful completion of the program requires regular attendance as well as fulfillment of weekly homework assignments.

The participant acknowledges that Amie Lands is a Certified Grief Recovery Specialist®, not a licensed therapist or counselor. Although therapeutic, the Grief Recovery Method is an educational program, not therapy or psychological treatment.

Some meetings of the Grief Support Group will involve breakout sessions in which the large group will be separated into smaller discussion groups. Family members, coworkers, or close friends will not be put into the same small discussion groups, and participants will call the Specialist’s attention to these relationships.

The participant agrees to arrive on time for each meeting, and to keep all information regarding other participants confidential. If the participant is unable to attend a meeting, they will alert the Grief Recovery Specialist as soon as possible. The participant agrees to participate fully, be honest, and refrain from judging the other participants.

Attendance is a crucial part of the program, and the participant is responsible for paying the entire amount of the program regardless of whether they miss a class. If the participant drops out within the first four classes, they will receive a prorated refund of the amount already paid minus a $75 fee. There are no refunds if the participant drops out after the fourth meeting; however, payments already received can be applied to a future Grief Support Group or One-on-One Program if the participant completes the program at a later date.
